Daddy's Graduation Gift was an Imperial Endowment Policy for $5,000

There, sir, was a sensible gift—one which a father of moderate means can bestow upon his "sweet girl graduate" and one by means of which he may continue to show tangible evidence of his love long after gifts of more costly, but less permanent, nature would have been forgotten.

His gift provides that when his daughter reaches 35 years of age she will receive from The Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada a cheque for $5,000 (in addition to accumulated profit earnings)—a sum of money which will add to her comfort and independence throughout her entire lifetime.

Of course, if she should not live to receive the money you have thus so thoughtfully provided for her welfare the full face of the policy will be paid to yourself, or some other beneficiary named by her.

Let me send you a copy of our free booklet "Miss Raymond Receives," which tells more about it.

EMMA SCOTT NASMITH, F.C.M., Principal.

THIS IS Canada's National School of Expression

This School offers two Normal Courses, open to Matriculants, for the Training of Teachers in

Physical Education and Dramatic Art

This course, under the direction of Mary G. Hamilton, assisted by Margaret A. MacGregor, gives thorough training in the practice and theory of physical education. The present demand for teachers in this Department far exceeds the supply.

This course includes the study of Literature, French, Voice and Physical Training, and the practice of Dramatic Art, Public Speaking and Reading. Graduates in this Department are eagerly sought for Colleges and Schools as teachers of community drama, voice culture and interpretation of literature.

Each of these courses extends over a period of two years, and are so interwoven that a third year's study gives graduation in both.

For Calendar and further information apply to the school, on North Street, or Telephone North 4344.

An Appreciation

We take this opportunity of thanking those who have seen fit to advertise in our "MESOLAE," who responded so generously and made possible the publication of this "Booklet."

In the ensuing year we intend to support both individually and collectively the afore-mentioned advertisers, as we feel that we will receive the most courteous attention and service.

Without hesitation we recommend them to our many friends.

Again thanking you, we are,

Gratefully yours,
